Camp Director

Pioneer Head Coach Laura Cook will return as Director for this GameBreaker Lacrosse Camp. In her tenth year at the helm, Laura has guided Sacred Heart University to an impressive 58-39 record after becoming a Division I program.

The Pioneers captured their first-ever league title last April when they beat rival Quinnipiac in the championship game, 15-14. Sacred Heart University had a magical run in 2008, finishing with a school record 12 wins and a 7-1 NEC mark that earned them the #2 seed in the conference tournament. The Pioneers went on the road to QU and beat #3 seed Monmouth in the quarterfinal round, 12-11. Sacred Heart brought home the championship trophy with a thrilling 15-14 win over the Bobcats with three seconds left to send the Pioneers into NCAA Tournament play.

As a player, Laura grew up in the girls lacrosse hotbed of Philadelphia, before attending UMASS. She was a four-year starter and Co-Captain of the team, and was also named as an Academic All-American. Laura still ranks among the program's top ten in scoring, goals and assists.

Assistant Director

Alaina Andersen- Assistant Coach, Sacred Heart University

Coach Cook's staff will be comprised of Sacred Heart University players and top local coaches.
