Camp Director

BOYS DIRECTOR

Eric Bailey, Assistant Coach at Cheshire High School, will be directing this GameBreaker Lacrosse Camp. Bailey was an All-American High School player at Cheshire High School and a standout four year starter Midfielder at UMass. In 1996 he was named 1st Team All New England as well as the MVP Player for the East/West Game and North/South Game.

Bailey's coaching career at Cheshire High School began in 2006 when he was named Defensive Coordinator to the Rams. Last spring, he helped guide Cheshire High School to a #10 ranking in the state in which he has been recently named as the Offensive Coordinator for this upcoming season. Coach Bailey has also been the Head Coach for Team Connecticut since 2006.

GIRLS DIRECTOR

Marissa Gelband, the Head Coach for Amity Youth Lacrosse, will be directing this GameBreaker Camp this summer. A native of New Haven, CT, Gelband began her lacrosse career in elementary school playing for the Foote School. While attending Wilbur Cross High School she played for Amity High School considering Wilbur Cross didn't offer a program. When she arrived at Emerson College as an audio/radio major, Gelband became a member of the College's first women's lacrosse team.

Gelband competed for three years for the Lions and was the team's leading scorer all three years. After graduating, Gelband was named the Head Coach at Emerson College in 2004 at the age of 21, in which she is still considered one of the youngest Head Coaches within the NCAA.

Since her stint at Emerson, Marissa has continued to coach throughout New England including teams such as Metro Lacrosse (MA), Milton Academy Middle School (MA), Daniel Hand High School (CT) and now currently Amity Youth Lacrosse.
