Camp Director

Peter Lawrence, Head Coach at the University of Hartford, will be returning as Director for these GameBreaker Lacrosse Camps.

Lawrence began his coaching career as an assistant at Whittier College, where he directed the Poets' defense in their first two seasons of NCAA competition. Whittier, during and after his tenure, was able to become a Top DIII program. He spent one season as an assistant for the club team at the University of New Hampshire, guiding the Wildcats to a Pioneer League Championship and a berth in the national tournament. Lawrence then spent three seasons as head coach at Elmira College, where he led the Soaring Eagles to an overall record of 8-6 in 2005, only the fifth winning season in school history. Lawrence has had the privilege to coach many Canadians over his career, including seven who have gone on to play in the NLL.

A standout player at Roanoke College and recently elected to its 2008 Hall of Fame class, Lawrence led the Maroons to three straight NCAA Division III Tournament appearances. He was a three time all-conference selection and a two time All-American selection, and in 1998 he was named Old Dominion Athletic Conference Player of the Year. He also played in the North-South All-Star Game that same year. After graduating from Roanoke College in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Lawrence was drafted by the MLL's Bridgeport Barrage in the league's inaugural season (2001).
