CAMP DIRECTOR

Lauren Paul is the first ever first-year coach to win an NCAA Division III National Championship in women's lacrosse. She was named the IWLCA Coach of the Year in 2009, her first season as a collegiate head coach. She followed that act by taking the 2010 Diplomats to the NCAA Semifinals. Paul boasts an impressive 37-5 record and .881 winning percentage as a head coach.

A two-time All-America choice and three-time Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) All-Metro Region First Team selection for the Diplomats, Lauren Paul '03, became the 10th women's lacrosse coach in the program's history in September, 2008.

In addition to earning national and regional honors, Paul was also a three-time All-Centennial Conference First Team nod, one of only eight players in league-history to accomplish that feat. As a senior, she served as team captain under then first-year head coach, Anne Phillips, F&M '81, the current head coach at Yale.

Paul's name peppers F&M's lacrosse record book. She was the first player in the program's history to score 100 goals and register 100 assists in her career. The Baltimore native ranks second in career assists (103), sixth in career points (242), and tenth in goals (139).
