Camp Director

Carol Knerr, Assistant Coach at Amherst College, will return to direct this GameBreaker Lacrosse Camp. Carol is entering her tenth year as Assistant Coach for the Lord Jeff women's lacrosse team, where she helped lead her team to the 2003 NCAA Championships. Before coming to Amherst, Knerr spent a year and a half as a two-sport assistant coach at Ivy League power Dartmouth College, where she helped lead the Big Green to an ECAC Field Hockey Championship - and an Ivy League title and subsequent trip to the NCAA Quarterfinals in women's lacrosse - in 1999.

Knerr was a standout lacrosse and field hockey player at the University of Richmond, where she was a four-year starter and captained both sports. Knerr has also served as an assistant women's lacrosse coach since arriving at Amherst, helping guide the team to the NCAA title game in 2001, the NCAA Semifinals in 2002 and 2004 and the program's first-ever NCAA Championship in 2003.
