CAMP DIRECTOR

Denise Daly graduated from Sacred Heart University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English in 2002 and a Masters of Arts and teaching in 2003. While at Sacred Heart, she was a four-year starting defender for the Pioneers. From 2007-2009, she returned to her Alma Mater as an Assistant Coach where she helped coach the Pioneers to win their first Division 1 Conference Championship. As an assistant, she was also responsible for coaching the defensive unit, recruiting, tape exchange, and assisting with other day-to-day operations.

Furthermore, she was an Assistant Varsity coach in Islip, NY for three years, and has been coaching Lacrosse camps for the past eleven years. She is the current Director of the Nyack girl's over-night Lacrosse camp and the returning Co-Director of the camp at Sacred Heart University. She is currently an eighth grade English teacher in Smithtown, New York. She resides in Holbrook, New York with her husband Thomas Daly, a New York City Fireman.
