

Advantage

Our camps were developed to provide young athletes with the opportunity to become better lacrosse players by learning from the best coaches in the game today. Since our inception in 2001, over 40,000 campers have attended our camps and improved their skills. Our staff is committed to the individual development of each camper. Our goal at GameBreaker Lacrosse Camps is to help you keep improving through great coaching and healthy competition, in a fun environment.

This is the GameBreaker Advantage.

Camp Director

This camp will be directed by former Yale University Assistant Coach Clarissa Clarke. A former Yale standout as a player and coach, Clarissa prides herself on providing a fun camp experience for all campers regardless of age or ability, and hiring some of the best college players and coaches in the game. She is currently volunteering at Fairfield University.

Co-Directing this Salve Regina camp is goalie specific coach, Laura Field, Assistant Coach at Fairfield University. Laura is in her second season as an assistant coach with the Fairfield women's lacrosse program after spending eight seasons at Yale University.
